the opportunity.

HISTORIC CHARM. TIMELESS SOPHISTICATION.

Nestled in the heart of downtown Vancouver at the prominent intersection of West Pender and Homer Street, 402 West Pender Street reflects the area's rich history and architectural heritage. The building was originally known as The British Columbia Securities Building and within the context of other commercial buildings of similar age and scale, this building dominates its surroundings and is a landmark in the area. This award-winning 9-storey, plus lower level, heritage building is comprised of approximately 46,558 SF and is celebrated for its striking brick, stone, and glazed terra cotta façade, complemented by beautiful interior and exterior detailing.

402 West Pender Street features 9 levels above grade, including a mezzanine level. The lower level/basement houses the mechanical rooms and features secure private storage lockers and a large common bike room.

Nearly $4 million has been invested in capital improvements to enhance the building's character and meet the demands of today's dynamic work environment.

402 West Pender Street represents a rare opportunity to acquire a trophy asset in Downtown Vancouver, making it an exceptional investment prospect for investors, developers, and owner-users alike.
